

The Higgins Group realizes that securing a mortgage is a critical component for almost every real estate purchase. In fact, choosing the right mortgage broker can make or break the process of buying your dream home. Based on our experience shepherding literally thousands of transactions over the last decade, we are happy to give you some guidance on making the right choice for YOUR mortgage needs!

Each of the listed mortgage companies as well as the Bankwell formerly Fairfield County Bank listed below come with our recommendations, and each has earned our trust over the years. The choice is up to you!
